DIED.

SMYTH—In this city, August 8, 1889, at the Queen's Hospital, J. Brook Smyth, aged 26 years, a native of London, Ireland. Brother of Capt. H. H. Smyth of the steamer Pele.

A CHINESE LAWYER.

The First Chinaman Admitted to the Bar of Hawaii.

On the 6th of August, Hong Yen Chang, a naturalized citizen of the United States, holding a license to practice law in the Supreme Court of New York, and also letters of denization from His Majesty the King, presented a petition to the Supreme Court that he be admitted to the practice of law in the Hawaiian Kingdom. Accompanying the petition was the following certificate:

"I hereby certify that Hong Yen Chang was my office clerk for about eight months in the years 1883-4, and that by my advice he went to the Columbia Law School in New York, and, as I am credibly informed, sustained an excellent reputation while there, and that I regard him as a person of good moral character."
A. S. HARTWELL,
This morning a license was issued to Hong Yen Chang to practice in the Courts of the Kingdom on payment of the usual fee of $10. He is the first Chinaman admitted to the Hawaiian bar.

DEATH OF J. B. SMYTH.

Mr. J. Brook Smyth, brother of Capt. H. H. Smyth of the steamer Pele, died at the Queen's Hospital yesterday and was buried from there this morning. The deceased, who was well known at Waimea, Kailua, for some time past, was brought from that place on Sunday on the steamer Waialeale. He was a native of Londonderry, Ireland, and only twenty-six years of age. At one time he was in the employ of the Inter-Island and Steam Navigation Company.

POLICE COURT.

FRIDAY, Aug. 9.

forfeited bail of $6 for drunkenness.
Jack Kuamoo charged with treason was remanded to the 16th.

SUPREME COURT—AT CHAMBERS.

BEFORE BICKERTON, J.

FRIDAY, Aug. 9.
Wang Chun vs. H. J. Nolte.
Trespass. Jury waived. The plaintiff claims $1000 damages for the defendant expelled and ejected him from certain leased lands and converted to his use the crops of plaintiff growing on said lands. The parties waived a jury and the case was heard on the 8th and 8th of August, 1889. The evidence clearly proves that the lessee had abandoned the leased premises, some three weeks before the defendant lessor entered and took possession of same. Judgment for the defendant. W. R.
Castle for plaintiff; Cecil Brown for defendant.

A young man known as "a gilded youth" sent the following note to a rich uncle the other night: "Not one word—if you do not send me $2,000 before midnight I shall cease to live." A similar demand had been received earlier in the day, so the fond uncle replied: "In response to a former favor I have already forwarded you my revolver.
It is in good condition and loaded."

The area of the Territories of latter 361,500 square miles. The European area contains a population of over 90,000,000; the American less than 1,000,000.

superintendence of Mr. A. W.
Keech, the steamer has been re-tubed, and a few slight repairs made to her boiler. Her machinery

HAWAIIAN LAWS FOR BELGIUM.

Mr. J. F. Hackfeld, Consul for Belgium, has made application to the Minister of Foreign Affairs for a complete set of laws now in force in the Hawaiian Kingdom for the Belgian Government. The Minister of Foreign Affairs sent the application to the Chief Justice, and the latter has replied by not only supplying the Minister with the laws but also the Supreme Court reports.
It appears that the Belgian Government sets aside a bureau for the laws of the different courts throughout the world.

THE ARION PICKIC.

The Honolulu Arion Society will hold its annual picnic at Kapiolani Park to-morrow. The weather promises to be fine and there will probably be a large attendance. Three cars will leave corner of Fort and King streets at 1 o'clock p. m. and every half-hour thereafter for Waikiki. Ladies and children will be transferred from the terminus to the picnic ground by busses, free of charge. The sports commence at 2 o'clock. A platform has been erected on the ground and the Hawaiian band will furnish music. The admission is only fifty cents, ladies free.

THE PALACE WALL.

Early this morning a gang of prisoners commenced to take down the Palace wall. Up to 1 o'clock this afternoon they had it down from the front gate on King street to the corner of King and Richards streets.
It is being taken down to within 3 feet 6 inches of the ground. The King suggested that an iron fence take its place, and this will be done.
It is understood that the Government has already sent for designs of ornamental iron fencing, and as soon as a design is selected, the fence will be ordered. There is no doubt that the taking down of the wall will be a great improvement.

The Amoskeag corporation of Manchester, N. H., has lately authorized the vaccination of its 8,000 operatives at its own expense.

THE BAND CONCERT.

The Duquesne Band Entertained a Large Audience.

The concert at the Hawaiian Hot-tel last evening by the band from the French flag ship Duquesne was quite a success. The front of the building was illuminated with colored lanterns, and the verandas were crowded with prominent citizens and their families. An immense number of people were stationed in the grounds. Among those noticed present were: His Majesty the King, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, Members of the Diplomatic and Consular Corps, Officers of the Flagship Duquesne, U. S. S. Alert and U. S. S. Nipsic.

The band was in the pavilion and numbered seventeen pieces. The performers used old instruments, their best ones being at Tahiti.
Some of the selections were well rendered but there was not the volume of tone we are accustomed to hear. The band was loudly applauded at the conclusion of each number. Following was the programme:

Allegro Militaire—Le Troubadour.

Sellenick

Overture—L'italienne a Alger

Rossini

Valce—La Belle Helene Offenbach

Fantasia—Rigoletto Verdi

Valce—Esperance Metra

Ballade—La Paloma Gradier

Quadrille—La Vie Parisienne

Offenbach

FROM M. THOMPSON'S DIGEST

OF HAWAIIAN SUPREME

COURT DECISIONS.

(In Preparation.)

ADOPTION.

A child inherits who is adopted by ancient custom. Kinaia v. Kahaua, 3 Haw., 368.

Ancient adoption of an heir to be valid must be complete and definite.
In re estate of Nakuapa, 3 Haw., 400. Evidence that the kindred did not know the adoption was made is not negative and hearsay, but is part of the case to be proved.
Id. 410.

The adoption of a child without a declaration of its heirship in the deed of adoption, does not give it rights of inheritance. Wei See v.
Young Sheng, 3 Haw., 489.

An oral adoption of an infant by a married man who during his life supplied it with food and clothing, is not ground upon which his widow can recover from the infant the amount of expenses so incurred.
Kahola v. Dutro, 4 Haw., 149. See parent and child.

ADULTERY.

See Husband and Wife.

ADVERSE POSSESSION.

See Ejectment.

Adverse possession dates only from a land award which interrupts previous prescription.

Whether the possession in fact is adverse or is under the owner's title, is one for the jury, with this limitation, that the burden of showing the possession to have been adverse is upon the party alleging it, but what constitutes an adverse possession, and what evidence of its being such is sufficient, are questions of law for the court. See Ka-ahue v. Crabbe, 3 Haw., 768.

Where plaintiff's ancestors have parted with the possession of land by parol exchange, under which defendant has held possession for over twenty years, plaintiff cannot recover it in ejectment. Kalia v.
Kopaea et al, 4 Haw., 198.

While a prescriptive right by adverse possession may be acquired in one piece of land without regard to the holding of other parcels granted by the same royal patent, it is not error, in an action of ejectment for one piece of land, to consider evidence relating to another piece held under the same royal patent, where the acts of possession relied on as to the piece not sued for, were involved with the facts relating to the piece claimed in the declaration.
Kalea v. Lemon, 4 Haw., 348.

The occupation of land of a decedent in this Kingdom in 1849, before the enactment of the statutes of descent, by a widow, is not necessarily as dower, and may be adverse to the heirs. The question should be left to the jury. Paula v. Malo, 4 Haw., 536.

When a bill in equity shows, in an action to set aside a royal patent for fraud, that defendant claims possession under patent, to whom patent was issued on or about June 6, 1855, and alleges no possession after the last date in any other than defendant and it is unexplained by allegations, it is conclusive against the plaintiff, and the demurrer must be allowed. Kalaekokoi v. Kabele 4 Haw., 668.

AGENT AND PRINCIPAL.

One of the several part owners of ships engaged in the whaling business, acting as agent to purchase supplies and outfits, will not be permitted to take, beyond a reasonable compensation for his services, or that agreed upon, nor to hold any profits incidentally obtained. Wilcox & Hanks vs. Marshall, 2 Haw., 296.

An agent or trustee cannot become the purchaser of property confided to his care.

Such sale not absolutely void, but voidable by the cestui que trust. Id.

3—There is one ground upon which the Mutual outranks all competitors upon which it keep silent. It has incomparably the Largest Debt of any Life Company in the world.
